

Which of the following sentence / sentences is/are correct???

1. (I)) The revised procedure is considerably more efficient than the cumbersome system that the department had been following for years.

(II) The average salary of employees working in the private sector is substantially higher than employees performing comparable work in the organisation.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect (d) Both are correct

2. (I)) Rather than attempting to conceal the problem, the management should acknowledge its seriousness and explain how it intends to resolve it.

(II) The evidence presented by the prosecution was not enough strong to establish beyond reasonable doubt that the accused had participated in the conspiracy.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct `(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

3. (I) The controversial proposal was eventually done away with after several members of the governing body raised objections to it.

II) He said that he completed the report before the chairman had asked him to make several additional changes.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct

(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

4. (I) The officer ordered the protesters to leave the restricted area immediately and warned them that they could be arrested if they refused.

II) Not until the investigation was nearly complete the authorities realised how extensively the records had been manipulated.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence / sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct

(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

5. (I) The confidential report is expected to submit to the parliamentary committee before the end of the current session.

(II) Several senior officials are widely believed to have been aware of the irregularities long before the investigation began.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct

(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

6. (I) Were the government to withdraw the subsidy abruptly, several industries dependent on it might find it difficult to remain competitive.

(II) Should the negotiations fail to produce an agreement, both parties may decide to refer the dispute to international arbitration.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

Q.7 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The effectiveness of the new compliance measures depend largely on (A) how consistently each regional office applies the guidelines, while neither the field inspectors nor the central authority appears willing to (B) overlook violations that undermines public confidence (C) and creates serious administrative difficulties (D).

(a) BD

(b) AC

(c) AB

(d) CD

Q.8 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

By the time the audit team will arrive at the regional office (A) next Monday, the accounts department will complete the reconciliation (B) of all pending entries and will have submitted the supporting documents (C) that the external reviewers requested last week (D).

(a) AC

(b) BD

(c) CD

(d) AB

Q.9 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

Had the engineers identified the structural weakness earlier (A), the bridge could have been reinforced before the monsoon (B), and the authorities would not be facing such extensive damage last year (C) nor would they evacuate hundreds of residents that night (D).

(a) AB

(b) BC

(c) CD

(d) AD

Q.10 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The department asked myself to verify (A) whether the confidential files had been transferred to the appropriate division (B) before handing the remaining documents to she and the legal advisor (C) for final scrutiny (D).

(a) BD

(b) CD

(c) AC

(d) AB

Q.11 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

Rarely the commission has encountered (A) such sustained resistance to a procedural reform, nor it has been forced to postpone (B) implementation even after the final notification was issued to all regional offices (C) across the country (D).

(a) BC

(b) AD

(c) AB

(d) CD

Q.12 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The witness denied to have received (A) any confidential material but later admitted discussing the proposal (B) with a consultant who agreed providing additional documents (C) before the inquiry was formally concluded (D).

(a) BD

(b) CD

(c) AC

(d) AB

Q.13 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

Although the inquiry generated many useful information (A) about procurement delays, it produced little conclusive evidence (B) regarding deliberate misconduct, and investigators found several pieces of correspondence (C) but few documentary evidence directly linking senior officials to the decision (D).

(a) BC

(b) AD

(c) AC

(d) BD

Q.14 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

After the negotiations stalled, the representatives reverted back to the original framework (A) and reconsidered several disputed clauses (B), but the chairperson asked them to repeat the same arguments (C) only if fresh evidence could materially altered the outcome (D).

(a) AD

(b) BD

(c) AB

(d) CD

Q.15 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The draft regulations were too ambiguous that several departments interpreted them differently (A), while the explanatory note was so technical that even experienced officers struggled with it (B); nevertheless, it remained such significant an issue that immediate clarification was necessary (C) before the rules could be enforced uniformly (D).

(a) BD

(b) CD

(c) AB

(d) AC

Q.16 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

Before launching the new portal, the department had its technical team to test (A) every security feature and got the legacy records digitised (B) by an external vendor, but it later made the vendor rectify (C) several indexing error that had escaped the initial review (D).

(a) BC

(b) AD

(c) CD

(d) AC

Q.17 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The regulatory board recommended that every regional office submits a quarterly compliance report (A) and further insisted that all unresolved complaints be reviewed by an independent panel (B) before the revised framework will come into force next month (C) so that procedural inconsistencies can be identified promptly (D).

(a) AC

(b) BC

(c) AB

(d) CD

Q.18 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The revised application procedure is too much complicated for first-time applicants (A), although the instructions are reasonably detailed (B) and the examples are sufficiently clear (C); several users nevertheless find the verification stage so much difficult to complete without assistance (D).

(a) BC

(b) AD

(c) CD

(d) AB

Q.19 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

Investigators could hardly find any documentary evidence (A) linking the contractor to the payment, despite the internal auditors reviewed hundreds of invoices (B) and traced several transfers through intermediary accounts (C); even then, they did not uncover nothing conclusive (D).

(a) CD (b) BD

(c) AD (d) AB

Q.20 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The ministry approved the modernization proposal after months of review (A) and allocated funds for their phased implementation (B), launching a five-years-long pilot programme (C) and appointed a twenty-member advisory panel (D).

(a) BC (b) AD

(c) AB (d) CD

Q.21 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The consultant is one of the few experts who has consistently challenged the methodology (A), and although each of her objections has been properly documented (B), a number of serious discrepancies has subsequently emerged (C) in reports that were initially accepted without reservation (D).

(a) AC

(b) BD

(c) AB

(d) CD

Q.22 The sentence below has errors in two parts which are highlighted in bold. Identify the same.

The contractor was initially averse from revising the construction schedule (A) but eventually agreed to comply with the revised safety requirements (B) after senior management insisted for a written assurance regarding worker protection (C) and the regulator threatened to suspend further operations (D).

(a) BD

(b) AB

(c) AC

(d) CD

Answer:

1.A	2.A	3.A	4.A	5.B	6.D	7.B
8.D	9.C	10.C	11.C	12.C	13.B	14.A
15.D	16.B	17.A	18.B	19.B	20.A	21.A
22.C						