New Pattern Spotting Errors

Which of the following sentence / sentences is/are correct???

1. (I) The economics of establishing a manufacturing unit in such a remote region have been carefully examined by an independent group of consultants.

(II) The quality of the research papers submitted by several candidates during the final stage of the selection process have disappointed the members of the evaluation committee.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect (d) Both are correct

2. (I)) Two-thirds of the money allocated for the rural development programme have already been spent on projects that were approved during the previous financial year.

(II) She is the only one of those officers who have consistently refused to compromise her professional integrity despite intense political pressure.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

3. (I) More than one senior executive have expressed reservations about implementing the proposal without first consulting the regional offices.

(II) Many a promising candidate has lost an opportunity merely because he failed to read the instructions carefully.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

4. (I) The organisation is providing financial assistance to economically disadvantaged students since it was established nearly two decades ago.

II) The authorities will not permit construction to resume until the company will produce all the documents required by the regulatory body.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct

(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

5. (I) Hardly had the committee begun examining the confidential documents when one of its members rose an objection regarding the manner in which they had been obtained.

(II) The cattle grazing near the river appears to have been abandoned by the farmer who owns the adjoining land.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

6. (I) I wish the authorities had informed the residents about the proposed demolition before issuing the final notification.

(II) It is high time the government introduced stricter regulations to prevent companies from exploiting loopholes in the existing legislation.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

7. (I) You had better reconsidered the implications of the agreement before committing the organisation to such a subsantial financial obligation.

(II) Nobody who attended the meeting objected to the revised proposal, did they?

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct

(b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

8. (I) The committee recommended that the controversial provision was deleted before the final version of the agreement was circulated among the participating states.

(II) Nothing could prevent the investigators to examine the financial records that the company had allegedly attempted to conceal.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

9. (I) The sudden announcement made several employees reconsider whether they should continue working for an organisation facing such serious financial difficulties.

II) Having warned repeatedly about the consequences of violating the safety regulations, the contractor could hardly claim that he was unaware of them.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

10. (I) You need not have purchased another copy of the report because I had already sent you the revised version by email.

(II) The first proposal was not accepted, and neither was the alternative suggested by the independent expert.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

11. (I) The revised procedure is considerably more efficient than the one previously used and is therefore preferable to retaining the existing system.

(II) A few of the recommendations were accepted, which enabled the department to make little progress during the first phase.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence / sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

12. (I) Of the two proposals placed before the committee, one was rejected immediately and the another was referred to a subcommittee for further examination.

(II)) The economic conditions prevailing today are quite different from those that existed when the original policy was formulated.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

13. (I) We look forward to receiving a detailed response from the department once it has examined the concerns raised in our representation.

(II)) None of the evidence presented during the investigation were sufficient to establish that the accused had participated in the conspiracy.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

14. (I) All organisations receiving public funds are expected to conform with the standards prescribed by the regulatory authority.

(II) Less employees have applied for voluntary retirement because there are fewer uncertainty about the company's long-term prospects.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

15. (I) While the proposal appears attractive in theory, its implementation may prove considerably more difficult than its supporters anticipate.

(II) The newly appointed director appears capable to manage the organisation despite the serious financial difficulties it currently faces.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

16. (I) It was only after the committee had examined the original records that it became clear how serious the figures in the published report had been distorted.

(II) What the committee recommended was that every disputed transaction be independently reviewed before the investigation was formally closed.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

17. (I) Such complicated was the procedure that even experienced officers occasionally made mistakes while completing the required documentation.

(II) Employees have been instructed to abstain to make public statements concerning matters that remain under investigation.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

18. (I) The policy was not only designed to reduce administrative costs but also to improve the quality of services provided to citizens.

(II) Both the uncertainty surrounding the proposed merger as well as the continuing decline in revenue has contributed to the fall in the company's share price.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

19. (I) The confidential files were removed from the office lest they should fall into the hands of people who were not authorised to examine them.

(II) The meeting was postponed due to several members of the committee were unable to reach the venue because of severe flooding.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

20. (I) Scarcely had the negotiations resumed when another disagreement arose over the mechanism proposed for resolving future disputes.

(II)) Having examined the documents submitted by both parties, the arbitrator concluded that several important facts had been deliberately concealed.

In each question, two sentences (I) and (II) are given. Identify which sentence/sentences are grammatically correct.

(a) Only (I) is correct (b) Only (II) is correct

(c) Both are incorrect

(d) Both are correct

Answer:

1.A	2.C	3.B	4.C	5.C	6.D	7.B
8.C	9.A	10.D	11.A	12.B	13.A	14.C
15.A	16.B	17.C	18.C	19.A	20.D	